1.11 You may provide details of other formal policies or formal strategies that specifically support gender equality that may be in place:
RACQ promotes gender equity principles through a broad range of formal policies which are readily available to all employees, including recruitment and selection, performance and career planning, secondments, higher duties and flexible work opportunities, with all decisions based on merit.

Additionally, RACQ provides a training program for all new managers with the aim of equipping leaders with the necessary skills to undertake recruitment and selection, performance reviews, career planning discussions and counselling and discipline processes. The training program aims to ensure consistency of practice and the application of gender equity principles.

RACQ encourages employees on parental leave to remain connected with their team and workplace through a keeping in touch guide. RACQ provides ongoing communication options and keeping in touch days to support all employees on parental leave.

1.12 Should you wish to provide additional information on any of your responses under Gender equality indicator 1, please do so below:

Gender equality indicator 2: Gender composition of governing bodies

- 2 Does your organisation, or any organisation you are reporting on, have a governing body/board?
- Yes
- No

2.1 Please complete the table below. List the names of organisations on whose governing bodies/boards you are reporting. For each organisation, enter the gender composition (in numbers, not percentages) of that governing body/board; and where in place, include what percentage target has been set relating to the representation of women, and the year the target is to be reached.

IMPORTANT NOTE: where an organisation name has been entered in the table, you must enter the gender composition NUMBERS of that governing body/board. If no target has been set for that particular governing body/board, please enter the number 0 in the '% Target' column and leave the 'Year to be reached' column blank. Otherwise, please enter a number from 0-100 in the '% Target' column and a date in the format of YYYY in the 'Year to be reached' column.
