RACQ wins big at national insurance awards

One of Queensland's largest insurers, RACQ, has taken out seven Mozo People's Choice Awards for its home and car insurance including Outstanding Customer Satisfaction.

The results came from a survey conducted by Mozo in partnership with Cint, the world's largest network for digital, survey-based research, where more than 2,000 Australians gave their verdict on 34 home and 40 car insurance providers.

RACQ Group Executive Insurance Tracy Green said winning seven awards across the home and car insurance categories this year was a proud moment.

"As a mutual organisation, we exist wholly and solely to benefit our almost 1.8 million members and their communities," Ms Green said.

"For us to have now won more than 20 Mozo People's Choice Awards in the past two years in a competitive insurance market is testament to the dedication of our people to provide not only quality products, but also trusted and reliable service to our members.

"We thank our members for this recognition, which serves as a great boost for everyone at RACQ.

"We continue to work hard to be there for our members and meet their needs during what has already been a challenging year following the devastating floods and prolonged severe weather."
