RACQ Insurance is a member of the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA). The AFCA is in place to assist in resolving complaints between consumers (you) and the participating financial service provider (RACQ Insurance).

The AFCA will only consider your complaint after we have first been allowed the opportunity to resolve your complaint through our internal dispute review process. If we are unable to resolve your complaint within 45 calendar days of the date we first received your complaint, you can refer your complaint to AFCA, even if we are still considering your complaint.

The AFCA only deals with complaints that fall within their 'Complaint Resolution Scheme Rules'. To find out whether your complaint qualifies for the AFCA, you can:
